Lifestyle; Nestled away in a cul-de-sac of quiet and well-kept homes is the immaculately cared for complex of 65 Hockey Street. The homes here are maintained well and the complex itself is always kept neat and tidy. Featuring the pool area, barbecues and parks as well as walking distance to public transport to the city via bus or train, 19/65 Hockey Street is an ideal option for updated and comfortable living. Accommodation; The home provides three spacious bedrooms with ceiling fans and two with built-in wardrobes. The master enjoys larger double wardrobes, an ensuite and air-conditioning. The property backs onto Persse Road Park allowing for nice green backdrops out of 2 of the bedrooms and other rooms downstairs. Heading down, we find the open living and dining spaces as well as a renovated and extended kitchen that feels plucked directly from a large freestanding home. It's spacious, updated throughout and includes updated appliances and a dishwasher. The large bench spaces, subway tile backsplash and green park views from the kitchen will have any home chef happy and dishing up in comfort every night. While the ensuite and main bathroom are upstairs there is a separate toilet downstairs for added comfort and convenience. On the same vein of comfort, the updated living area has a split system air-conditioning unit, and the rear courtyard is a low maintenance paved sitting area surrounded by plants, gardens and a firepit area. 19/65 Hockey Street is the ideal option for easy living and is conveniently located. Local shopping is only minutes driving away, public transport within walking distance as well as easy access to highways, local schooling, and small local boutique shops. Features; 3 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, 1 garage, updated living, dining and kitchen areas, dishwasher, air-conditioning, private courtyard, parkland backdrops, pool and barbecue areas within the complex, close to amenities, shopping, public transport, schooling and highway access.
