Welcome to Marong, what a beautiful position in a quiet and family friendly court. The master bedroom is so spacious & the home is complete with brand new carpet. All of the proportions throughout the home are large including the walk in robe with an abundance of storage. This home offers space for the entire family with side access, a large decked alfresco and a shed with concrete and power. This truly is the whole package! Chef's Kitchen: This is the hub of the home. Facing out to the alfresco where the glass sliding doors all open up to flow the spaces you can entertain indoors & outdoors. The stone benches, large gas cooktop, dishwasher and walk-in pantry make the space a dream to cook in. Outside Oasis: The land size is such an integral feature here, offering immense opportunity to astute buyers. The large frontage offers space for you to park the trailer, boat or caravan, you can get this into the block off street and have access around to the shed. Plenty of room for the kids & the pets. Location location: Here you have a large family home with room for the kids & adults to have their own space. Positioned in the ever so desired Marong Run. A beautiful estate with close access to all facilities. Offering a substantial family home with a country lifestyle feel.
