This standout coastal suburb of Dalyellup in the stunning South West will have you unwinding with the scent of the Indian Ocean and lifestyle options for all ages. Welcome to 19 Athena Road. A beautiful coastal 5-bedroom home with premium finishes and meticulous attention to detail. The spacious hallways invite you to relax and leave your shoes at the door after a long day. Large floor tiles, high ceilings and a neutral colour palette creates a versatile space for new owners to incorporate their furniture easily. Generous sun-drenched bedrooms with ducted air, built-in wardrobes and low-set windows with versatile window treatments that capture relaxing garden views. The main bathroom has the same tasteful placement and finishing touches as the master ensuite. Retreat to the private master with the expansive king-sized suite, spacious walk-in robe and large tiled hobless shower with heated towel racks. The generous meterage of the home has incorporated the discreet storage room that leads through to the mixed media /theatre room with tasteful high-set envelope box windows to allow that versatility to curl up and read a book. The open floorplan lends the home to family dinners and entertaining with the well-appointed scullery and seamless oversized Caesarstone benchtops with quality appliances. The direct internal access from the expansive double garage into the home gives privacy and convenience for daily living. If you have a boat or caravan, there's the convenience of side rear access to the shire-approved 8x6 metre powered shed. Established reticulated gardens create that ambiance while allowing room for that dream swimming pool. Make the move and enjoy living in this well-established community of Dalyellup Beach. • 46.8km to Busselton airport • 2km to Dalyellup schools • 1.5km to Dalyellup Beach 4wd access
