Set within the Cherrybrook Technology High School catchment and tucked away behind established trees for privacy, this spacious family home exudes an immediate feeling of relaxation. Large windows and doors allow an abundance of natural light through the formal and informal living zones. Caesarstone benchtops and modern cabinetry frame the gourmet kitchen which includes modern cooking appliances, a built-in pantry and plenty of cupboard space. A covered rear decking is the perfect space to entertain and host dinner parties while enjoying the park backdrop and manicured yard. An oversized upstairs rumpus room offers potential as a teenage retreat or additional lounge area. The spacious master bedroom enjoys access to a walk-in wardrobe and the luxury of an ensuite. Built-in wardrobes are included in three of the additional bedrooms, with the layout presenting as an opportunity for multi-generational family living or guest accommodation. This highly-sought address is a short stroll from buses, Oakhill Shopping Village, Oakhill Drive Public School and local parks. It's also only 6 minutes to Cherrybrook metro station and 10 minutes from Castle Towers.
