Nestled in the prestigious Doncaster East, this property is a true gem, offering an exceptional blend of comfort, and convenience. With two bedrooms, including a master bedroom boasting a walk-in robe and ensuite. As you step inside, you'll be greeted by a spacious lounge room, perfect for relaxation and entertainment. The well-kept kitchen and meals area provide a hub for family gatherings and culinary delights. One of the standout features of this property is its north-facing backyard, allowing you to bask in natural sunlight all year round. Whether you're enjoying your morning coffee or hosting a BBQ with friends, this outdoor space is a true sanctuary. Situated on a substantial plot with over 40 meters of road frontage, this property also features a circular driveway with dual access, making parking and maneuvering a breeze. Or adding to the allure of a rebuild/ the homes development potential (STCA). The convenience of multiple entry points is a rare find and enhances the overall functionality of the property. But that's not all! This home is proudly located within the esteemed Beverley Hills Primary School zone, making it an ideal choice for families seeking a top-tier education for their children.
