Nestled in one of the greatest locations in Sunbury, this renovated property ticks all the boxes of what is required if you are after an affordable low maintenance property. Upon entering the property, the fantastic sized front yard works beautifully as there is plenty of room for the cars & space for the kids to enjoy. The home itself consists of three spacious bedrooms with built in robes, renovated central bathroom with separate toilet & spacious family/lounge area. The heart of this home is located in the amazing kitchen with premium appliances, quality stone & tiles & ample space for storage. Stepping outside enjoy a beautiful deck overlooking the back yard, plenty of grassed space which backs onto the kismet creek reserve & entertain in the garage / work shop. Additional features include; evaporative cooling, ducted heating, polished timber floors, wood fire place, single garage with rear access & much more. All of this on an allotment size of approximately 585m² (approx.) Call James Rizk on 0458 457 386 for more information!
