An adoring home positioned in one of Bundanoon's most picturesque streets. Constructed of timber weatherboards and tiled roof, this charming and quite unique cottage has a stunning forest backdrop, and is just a stone's throw from the main street, shops, school & public transport. Featuring 2 double bedrooms, sunroom/3rd bedroom, fully renovated bathroom, and modern kitchen with 40mm Caesarstone benchtops. There is a sunbathed living room with wood heater and tranquil views over the forest, formal lounge with open fire and sensational elevated deck looking over the gardens and through the canopy of flora. Showcasing high ceilings, decorative period cornices, polished timber floors, picture rails, formal entry, and single garage plus carport. Fully landscaped with terraces, paths, and cottage style gardens. This unique property is wonderfully presented and an absolute MUST SEE. Ideal as a weekender, an inspirational home for anyone with an artistic flair, holiday letting or just a cosy place to live. This property is currently tenanted and requires 24 hours notice for inspections.
