Every now and then a property graces the market which exceeds and surpasses all expectations... a residence which is simply a 'world class', number 19 City Vista is one such property. Defined by its breathtaking beauty and cinematic Perth City vista, the architects brief was simple... "Ensure its design takes full advantage of its enviable unprecedented backdrop". Carefully planned over three cascading levels for intuitive family living, its inherent European flair is evident throughout. Exquisite in every aspect, it affords substantial accommodation of 5 generously apportioned bedrooms with the Master Suite being a truly grand affair. Luxuriously appointed, the seamlessly flowing interiors are complimented with galley style chefs kitchen and specifically planned cinema. Befitting of a CEO, the home office takes pride of place on the top level. As expected from one of Gooseberry Hills most iconic properties, the 'Hollywood' inspired award winning infinity swimming pool is on another level and central to this incredible homes exceptional entertaining aspect. A truly spectacular property in an equally spectacular setting.
