Welcome to this remarkable three-story family home, offering a generous 460m² of living space and designed to blend serenity and easy family living with breathtaking sea views. Located in Pacific Heights, this home showcases 180-degree views from the Keppels to the marina, setting the stage for an extraordinary coastal lifestyle. This residence features four spacious bedrooms, two of which include private ensuites, catering for large families looking for both privacy and comfort. The modern kitchen is ideal for hosting, with plenty of cupboard space and a large breakfast bench that smoothly connects to the outdoor entertainment area, making it perfect for gatherings and relaxed meals. The high ceilings, on the ground and first floors create an airy, open atmosphere through the interiors. Outdoor living is a key highlight here, with four separate decks providing perfect spots to enjoy the stunning sea views. The outdoor entertainment deck is especially designed for hosting, effortlessly connecting to the indoors for a seamless flow when entertaining guests and using the pool. Leisure amenities are plentiful with a large (7.2m x 4.6m) in-ground salt water swimming pool offering a resort-like feel right in your backyard. Additionally, there's a spacious workshop, a garage that can accommodate up to four cars, and a dedicated 6m x 3m area for boat parking, making this home a haven for those with hobbies or a love for the sea. The property also includes a separate office space, ensuring that working from home is both practical and peaceful. This home not only promises a comfortable and stylish living environment but also provides all the functional elements essential for modern family life. Embrace a lifestyle where every day feels like a holiday in this luxurious coastal home, all framed by the captivating vistas of Keppel Islands.
