IN-ROOM AUCTION EVENT | Wednesday 27th March 2024 at 6:00pm at the Harcourts Inner East office at 4/57-59 Oxford St, Bulimba. Positioned directly on the waterfront with quick access to the Brisbane River, this light and airy home offers the ideal lifestyle with a private pontoon, numerous living areas, and a huge separate studio located just 5.8km from the city. As you step into the main living area, you are welcomed in with gorgeous timber flooring, an open plan design, freshly painted interior, and a stunning white kitchen with adjacent dining area. At the back of the home, there is an enormous entertaining space with floor to ceiling glass taking advantage of the views across the lawn to the water. If you are not already a lover of boating and fishing, this could change everything. The property has a private pontoon accessed from your own backyard where you can keep the boat handy for trips out to the Brisbane River. Mowbray Park is also close by where you can catch the City Cat into the city. Separate to the house, there is a huge studio that also has water views. This multipurpose space has three bedroom areas plus a living zone and could be used as a sleepout, studio, teenage retreat, or a place to run a home office. Located in a desirable area close to schools and parks with a quick commute to the city, interest in this property is anticipated to be high.
