Step right into a world full of possibilities with this charming classic brick gem. Nestled on a 511.29sqm plot, this two-bedroom plus sunroom home comes with the added bonus of a low-maintenance backyard and convenient rear lane access to not just one, but two separate garages. As for the location, it's all about that coveted coastal lifestyle that pulls in folks from all around. The house has got that old-world charm - ornate plaster ceilings, picture rails, and ornamental fireplaces. The bathroom has had a contemporary renovation, yet the remaining rooms are ready to be modernised into your family's new home. You could begin with replacing the carpet and giving the whole house a fresh lick of paint, and you are definitely going to want to update that kitchen. You can easily take a leisurely stroll to the beach, with your board or towel in hand, and even grab a coffee along the way. The village features a selection of eateries, shops, an IGA supermarket, bakery, and post office for your convenience. For casual dining, the General Washington and Gladstone hotels are great spots to unwind. Additionally, the area provides convenient access to Newcastle via the Stockton ferry.
