John Elliman

$499,500

With an asking price under $500,000, this home has a point of difference. A home different to many. A home with style and individuality. Gaining the beautiful winter sunshine from the northerly aspect, you cannot help but be impressed by the vaulted timber ceilings, slate flooring and exposed brickwork. Downstairs comprises a relaxing "sun filled" lounge room, cottage style kitchen, dining room, small bathroom with toilet, vanity and shower plus that all important separate family room giving flexibility to the lifestyle of today. Upstairs are 3 bedrooms and a bathroom with all bedrooms having built in robes. The home oozes character and charm both inside and out. If you like outdoor entertaining you are very well catered for here with 3 separate entertainment zones on the north, west and south sides. The block is private, spacious and well established and is positioned at the end of the court. A double carport looks after the cars and a 5m x 3m workshop looks after the handyman. Looking for something a little bit different? You might have found it!
