If you've ever dreamed of playing real-life Monopoly and snagging the best property on the board, today is your lucky day! Welcome to 19 Fisher St, the Clark Kent of houses - a little unassuming on the outside but bursting with superhero potential on the inside! Calling all fearless DIY enthusiasts and renovation daredevils, this is your chance to take on the ultimate project. 19 Fisher St proudly wears the title of "Worst House on the Best Street," but don't be fooled; beneath its rugged exterior lies a diamond in the rough waiting to be polished! This little love nest needs a tonne of work and it definitely isn't for the faint hearted. BUT if you're the type of buyer that isn't afraid of hard work and can see the amazing potential this property has then do not delay inspecting. So let's get into the nitty gritty of some key features. • Its got Harbour views! Check! You'll be sipping your morning coffee with a view that could make even the snobbiest influencer green with envy. • The 875m² block is so spacious; you can practically host a block party - neighbours included! • It has an awesome veranda, the unofficial HQ for sipping lemonade and spying on the neighbourhood action - like your very own VIP skybox. Picture yourself as a king or queen with an ensuite fit for royalty. It's your own private escape within the hidden fortress. But wait, there's more! Behold the modern kitchen that's begging for your culinary genius to take centre stage. Cook up a storm and impress your friends with Michelin-star-worthy meals (and maybe even have Gordon Ramsay give you a thumbs up!). Did we mention that 19 Fisher St is so strong that even the Hulk would be impressed? With its re-stumping featuring steel posts, this house is practically invincible! The motivated seller knows the secret - they've left all the fun work for you! Dust off your toolbelt, embrace your inner Chip and Joanna, and get ready to turn this "fixer-upper" into a jaw-dropping masterpiece. Under the Property Occupations Act 2014, a real estate agent is prohibited from giving any type of price guide to potential buyers when a property is going to auction in Queensland.
