

19 Harris Street, Willoughby, NSW 2068

Sold House

Thursday, 12 October 2023

19 Harris Street, Willoughby, NSW 2068

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Type: House

Rawa Norman
0299086099

Jason Conroy
0415253029

Contact agent

A rare example of superior quality, providing graceful flow and functionality, this impressive home offers exceptional warmth, luxury, and immaculate detailing, for the discerning buyer. Enjoying a sunny elevated corner-block position on a private tree-lined cul-de-sac, this home is a true Willoughby urban oasis, and features double brick concrete slab construction, a generous thoughtfully curated interior layout, and fully landscaped Australian native feature garden. This premier address is located walking distance to express city buses, a bustling retail strip, and highly sought-after Willoughby catchment schools.- Featuring impeccable off-form concreting, oversized auto-lock double garage, solar panels, and EV fast charge station- Select-grade European oak flooring, integrated timber veneered joinery, corian basins & bathtub, and LED lighting- Smart home automation, including security system, home video intercom and zoned ducted air-conditioning- Alfresco entertaining area with Tucker BBQ, heated mineral pool with waterfalls and lush gardens, connecting seamlessly to indoor dining- Large kitchen features oversized granite island, high-end appliances, and abundant storage- Ground floor living room offers an inviting and open entertaining space, with feature gas fireplace and granite inlaid cabinetry- Generous and private first floor family rumpus with large wraparound balcony and city skyline views- Spacious parents retreat, with bespoke joinery, walk-in robe and large ensuite- Double-glazed, Low-E windows and floor-to-ceiling sliding doors throughout