Step into the impeccably renovated 19 Helen Street, a splendid sanctuary for families seeking a blend of modern luxury and tranquil living in Pioneer Bay, Victoria. This exquisite property, finished to the highest standard, is a dream come true for discerning buyers who value attention to detail and an effortless move-in experience. Boasting four spacious bedrooms, the master suite is a retreat unto itself with built-in robes and a vast ensuite. The remaining bedrooms, equipped with built-in storage, offer flexibility with the fourth room ideally suited as a home office. The heart of the home is the gourmet kitchen, replete with top-of-the-line appliances, sleek black stone benchtops, and a breakfast bar that promises to be the epicentre of family life. The kitchen's open-plan design seamlessly integrates with the living, rumpus, and formal dining areas, allowing for versatile living configurations. Fresh Tasmanian oak floorboards underfoot, eclectic blinds dressing every window, and an 8kw solar panel array to significantly reduce power bills are but a few of the thoughtful inclusions. Climate control is a breeze with fully ducted evaporative air conditioning and a cosy wood heater for the cooler months. Outdoors, the property doesn't disappoint with a colossal 14m x 6m garage providing abundant storage or workspace, a fully paved driveway, and a forecourt for ample off-street parking. Situated on a generous 503 square metre allotment, this home is not just a residence but a lifestyle choice. With easy access to the best of Bass Coast and Phillip Island, as well as being within convenient reach of Melbourne's eastern suburbs, 19 Helen Street is the epitome of high-quality living for families who demand the best in comfort and style.
