Charming feature filled cottage on elevated lot with ocean views in sought after Beresford This home has been well maintained and still has many of its original features. Jarrah floorboards and high ceilings ensure it oozes all the charm of yesteryear. Step inside from the massive front patio to the delightful entrance that leads through to the living area and well set up kitchen. The laundry adjoins the kitchen and there is direct access from the carport. Both bedrooms and small nursery or study are accessed by a passage leading off the lounge area and entrance. The bathroom has been renovated and features a bath and shower. Across the rear of the home is a beautiful deck area just the spot for sitting back and enjoying the ocean views. You can travel up the drive through the double tandem carport to the massive shed at the rear of the lot. The perfect package with solar panels installed.
