The good life awaits in this beautiful, nestled retreat with absolutely nothing to be done but move in and enjoy the special hills lifestyle afforded to you. Cosy yet contemporary with freshly sanded timber floors, and panes that frame lush treetop views, the comprehensively renovated home delivers a minimalist layout that will suit a young family looking to settle into hills life with grown children, multigeneration families and grandparents. North to rear facing with majestic views of the Dandenong Ranges and glimpses of the twinkling urban lights that unfold come twilight, the backdrop to your everyday is serene and breathtaking. A living/meals is the heart of the home where you can congregate with family and friends for meals and conversation at the breakfast bar. The showpiece is the kitchen gleaming with stone benchtops, stainless-steel appliances, soft close cabinetry, LED lighting and soft close drawers. Three bedrooms are tucked off a hallway serviced by a sparkling family bathroom resplendent with floor to ceiling tiles and chic vanity. Outdoors the expansive ¼ acre grounds have been made usable for families who cherish style and space outside to relax, play, host friends and family or enjoy the stunning bushland setting. Kids can choose their own adventure as they roam and explore, and adults will find joy basking in the sunshine, telling stories around the firepit or hosting friends and family long after the sun sets on one of three entertaining decks. Downstairs a freshly completed fourth bedroom with its own bathroom and deck is the crowning glory – a private haven for older kids yet to fly the coop, grandparents or guests. The location too is first class walking distance to the Upwey Village and you can enjoy a lovely 1km loop from your doorstep taking in city views from the end of the street and the breathtaking vistas from the Upwey Lookout.
