Perfectly preserved home stuck in the 70's, with all the original fittings and features. This 2-bedroom cottage is still in good shape and would be great as a starter home or for someone looking to renovate to their own taste. Features a large kitchen / dining area, comfortable living space, 2 good sized bedrooms, an office area, bathroom with separate lavatory and a spacious laundry. Small back verandah to enjoy a morning coffee on and a large yard with 2 single car lock up garages. In an elevated part of town, close to a local park and only a short walk down to Quartpot Creek.
