

19 Hurst Drive, New Gisborne, Vic 3438

House For Sale

Wednesday, 12 June 2024

19 Hurst Drive, New Gisborne, Vic 3438

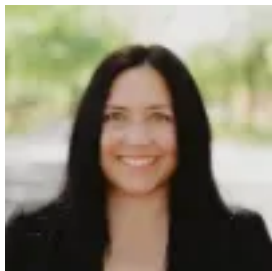

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 305 m2

Type: House

Kirrily Evans

0491181511

E.O.I | $1,495,000 - $1,595,000

Expression of Interest Closing 5th July at 4pmA masterpiece of architectural brilliance in the heart of the highly anticipated European-inspired Baringo Village, this high-spec, 3-bedroom, 2.5-bathroom residence redefines modern living with impeccable craftsmanship and unparalleled quality, promising an extraordinary living experience. Heated polished concrete floors, high ceilings, and natural stone finishes set a tone of unrivalled luxury, seamlessly connecting lush garden aspects with the open-plan living and dining domain through walls of glass. The state-of-the-art kitchen, featuring dual Smeg ovens, and a Bora extractor cooktop with induction and Teppanyaki grill, exudes a seamless aesthetic. Enhanced by ambient lighting, a statement gas fireplace, a walk-in pantry and an integrated cocktail bar within the dining room, this gourmet space delivers function and form, catering to every desire. Upstairs, the master suite is a true oasis, boasting a custom-fitted walk-in robe and a lavish ensuite with a luxurious bathtub and dual stone vanity. Two additional bedrooms with built-in robes, each featuring floor-to-ceiling sheer linen curtains, blackout roller blinds and premium wool carpets, adjoining the second bathroom. But it's not just the interior that sets this home apart; the outdoor area is equally impressive. North and south facing terraces extending from the living room creates an inviting space for entertaining all year round, flowing onto landscaped gardens that are designed to capture the tranquillity day and night with ambient garden lighting and corten steel feature planter boxes. Reverse cycle heating and cooling zoned throughout, double glazing, a powder room, Victorian Ash timber stairs, and access through a rear laneway into an oversized single remote garage with a laundry and home office ensure comfort and functionality. Set within the prized Baringo Village, with plans for a boutique hotel and vineyard nearby and walking distance to existing café, pub, restaurant and train station, this fully considered turnkey home is a gateway to an enviable, connected lifestyle.