Situated in the beautiful bay side township of Strahan on the stunning West Coast of Tasmania, 19 Jones Street awaits a new owner. This well presented 3 bedroom home sits on a large 2112m<sup>2</sup> (approx.) allotment with large established trees and private garden areas. The home has been tastefully renovated with neutral tones throughout, quality flooring, renovated bathroom and remodel kitchen which makes this property feel like its giving you a "Big Hug" as soon as you step through the front door. The living area is a stylish and comfortable spot to enjoy a red or two, or snuggle up in front of the wood burner, especially in the colder months. The kitchen has a great layout with french doors that open onto the undercover deck which captures the afternoon sun and overlooks the large rear yard. The home also has a single car garage with workshop, storage and a separate garden shed. This property is well worth an inspection and will please even the fussiest of buyer. Currently listed on airbnb, hosting for a new owner is possible also, or have this wonderful spot all to yourself. Please call Nardi to arrange your private inspection.
