Located in the forever popular Eynesbury Estate, is this prestigious home set on a 661m² allotment approx. and exuding high quality craftsmanship throughout. This four-bedroom home + study will be sure to please the entire family. Boasting an exceptional floor plan and offering the master bedroom at the rear of the property including en-suite with double vanity, stone bench tops, oversized shower and sliding door access to the alfresco area. The remaining three bedrooms offer built-in robes and carpet and are serviced by a bright central bathroom. An optional 5th bedroom/study or home office will give you the flexibility to work from home or give guests their own private space when visiting. The galley-style kitchen hosts a long list of upgrades including island bench with waterfall stone benchtop, quality stainless steel appliances including dishwasher, freestanding oven and an over-sized walk-in pantry with a wealth of storage and fridge nook. The home provides multiple living spaces and separate dining area with an effortless flow through to the enclosed alfresco area. This space is perfect for entertaining all year around! Special features include landscaped gardens, ducted vacuum, ducted heating, evaporative cooling, down lights throughout, separate laundry with access to outside, garden shed, double car remote controlled garage and much more! This exceptional property is situated moments to scenic walking trails, schools and the new town centre. Please call us today for more information or visit us at one of our open times!
