With features of a bygone era blended with modern convenience, this Californian bungalow exudes charm and homeliness. Ideal for those wishing to downsize or find a unit alternative you are encouraged to inspect! Added bonus of a second toilet at the back of the house, no need to walk through the house if you are entertaining or working outdoors in the garden. Situated within a short flat walk to town the property is easily maintained and in excellent condition, tastefully decorated and with well established gardens there are a lot of boxes ticked here. Book your private inspection by contacting Jodi or Colin via email or phone, it will be our pleasure to show you through!
