This large family home has been lovingly maintained retaining the old school charm and heavy wooden tones to pay homage to the heritage of this stunning property. With three large bedrooms and a fourth that can be used as a study/playroom. And the main featuring built-ins there is plenty of room to spread out, there is plenty of natural light to take advantage of creating a warm and open feel. With panel heating and a heat pump scattered across multiple living areas you will be comfortable all year round. The large bathroom has both a bathtub and shower and separate toilet. There is a massive backyard that is perfect for entertaining through the summer and a large established garden patch, that someone with a green thumb could nurture into a stunning garden for fresh fruit and vegetables all year round. Enquire today as opportunities like this don't come up often and it won't last long.
