Discover the enchantment of our exquisitely transformed Edwardian masterpiece, proudly positioned in Canterbury's leafy streets. As you step inside, you're greeted by a captivating blend of historical elegance and modern luxury. Our designer gardens and stunning façade set the stage for an interior where period grace meets contemporary flair. Experience the pinnacle of sophisticated living in the spacious living area, an ideal haven for families who adore entertaining. Glass stacker doors open to reveal a sumptuous alfresco deck, offering views of the crystal-clear pool and manicured gardens. This outdoor haven boasts a chic kitchen, automated louvers, heating, and built-in speakers to create the perfect atmosphere. Culinary dreams come true in our sleek kitchen, adorned with Calcutta marble, stone benches, and splashbacks. Cooking is a delight with top-tier Swiss-made V-ZUG ovens and generous space. The residence features four luxuriously appointed bedrooms, each with built-in robes. The master suite is a showstopper with its extensive BIRs, opulent ensuite, and a stunning freestanding bathtub, complemented by garden views through the stained-glass leadlight bay window. Additional highlights include a family bathroom with dual vanity, walk-in shower, and a volcanic stone bathtub. This stunning home, initially built circa 1910, underwent a magnificent extension and renovation in 2016 by renowned architect Ian McEwan, surrounded by immaculate Ian Barker-designed gardens. Period details such as pressed metal high ceilings, leadlight bay windows, ornate cornices, and fretwork, combine with modern comforts like engineered French Oak flooring, hydronic heating, refrigerated cooling, and a French cast iron wood heater 'Cheminees Philippe' in the living room. Outside, indulge in the salt-chlorinated, self-cleaning swimming pool, both gas and solar heated for year-round enjoyment. Perfectly located, enjoy a short stroll to the charming Maling Road, the serene Canterbury gardens, and within reach of top schools. This is more than a home; it's a lifestyle waiting for you in one of Canterbury's most prestigious locales.
