Tightly held by the same family for almost 50 years, this ravishingly retro three bedroom home graces an enormous 845m2 block (approximately) on the corner of Mary and Price Streets, a prime corner position. Appealingly presented and eminently liveable, delivering a broad range of options including savouring the character, renovating, building new and developing (subject to relevant approvals), it's a complete classic with wonderfully wide street frontage. Presenting a family room, dining room, kitchen and sunroom or study, the residence is bright and open. There's a huge potential-packed backyard and both a tandem carport and garage, accessed from Price Street. Further features include an eye-catching central bathroom with shower and separate bath, built-in robes to all bedrooms, handsome floorboards, etched glass doors, big windows, heating and air conditioning. Close to Buckley Park, excellent schools including St Bernard's College, zoned for Buckley Park College, transport options, the majestic Maribyrnong River and vibrant Keilor Road, it's loveable now and the personification of further potential.
