Boasting generous proportions, a desirable floorplan and 2,023sqm of land, this home has been designed ahead of its time. First home buyers, buyers eager to renovate, or any family dynamic seeking an ideally positioned home. Still original in most parts but in immaculate condition, this home has never been on the market, still the original owners from new. The kitchen offers everything you need for everyday living, presenting plenty of bench and storage space and an oven with an electric stovetop. An adjoining office/walk in pantry is feature you don't see in a home of this era, plus a neighbouring dining area. A separate private living space with built in floor to ceiling cabinetry shows the craftsmanship of this home. Each of the three-bedrooms are generous in size, have built-in robes and the main even has a walk in robe. A functional family bathroom, separate toilet and good sized laundry complete the package. Outside some rain and a quick tidy up will restore the extensive gardens and lawn to its former glory. A shed provides lockable storage as well as the double car port, securely fenced, private porch/patio area and rainwater tank are all features of this property. This home is an opportunity you do not want to miss.
