Step into a welcoming atmosphere where simplicity meets functionality in this charming 3-bedroom home, featuring well-rounded and functional interiors amongst beautifully kept surroundings in a quiet court-side setting. Rich timber floors guide into a spacious lounge with a charming gas fireplace, overseen by a stone-look kitchen with high-quality appliances and a buffet island, lending to life of practicality and simple style. The zoned dining area stretches out to a beautiful backyard encompassing the remainder of the 671sqm (approx.) allotment, offering a serene escape with a parkland outlook from its covered BBQ terrace. Inside, three robed bedrooms provide privacy away from social noise, closely served by a central country-style bathroom with a walk-in shower, plus a full-sized laundry and separate toilet. Adding to the appeal is a double garage/workshop with a potbelly heater and a bonus storage shed that further accentuates the functionality of this charming home. Kick back and relax as soon as you move in, or take inspiration from its adaptable layout and renovate to your own tastes. Regardless of your aspirations, there's no denying the allure of its peaceful court locale, metres from Wallaroo Primary through the Westpark Reserve, just moments from Western Port Secondary, buses, Hastings village shopping, Pelican Park, and the foreshore reserve.
