This four bedroom weatherboard home is situated on a large 2023m² residential block and has a lot to offer anyone seeking to enter the property market. Located in the quiet country town of Macarthur, this home is just a short drive down to the South West Victorian Coast and the Great Ocean Road. The quiet country lifestyle offers a convenient blend with major towns Portland, Warrnambool and Hamilton not too far away. This home features an open plan kitchen/dining area, the kitchen with a dishwasher and electric cooking, and the dining area with a spit system air conditioning unit, the living area with wood fire, four generous sized bedrooms, three of them with built in robes. The bathroom has a bath, vanity, shower and a separate toilet. The property also features timber floor boards and ceilings fans throughout. Some external features of this property include the carport, garage, shed and veranda around the house. Contact the team at Groves Real Estate for more details or to arrange a private inspection.
