

19 Pineapple Avenue, Torquay, Qld 4655

Sold House

Friday, 23 February 2024

19 Pineapple Avenue, Torquay, Qld 4655

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

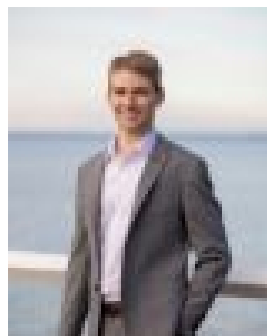

Parkings: 4

Area: 911 m2

Type: House

Eli Winger
0439909699

Zavier Laurie
0478452829

$545,000

Located at the end of a whisper quiet cul-de-sac in Torquay, this versatile property is certain to appeal to a wide range of buyers due to its potential. The home is positioned on a generous 911m² allotment and is located in a central position within proximity to all major amenities. For those searching for a house where space and convenience are important to you, then this home is sure to impress. The home offers excellent potential for those seeking to customize their floorspace to suit their unique preferences. You'll have plenty of opportunities to create a home which fits your needs, whether you're looking to enjoy the space yourself or take advantage of the investment market, this property offers endless possibilities. Features include:

- Low set brick home, built in approx. 1988
- G-shaped kitchen with electric oven and breakfast bar
- Open plan living and dining, adjoining undercover patio area via sliding door
- Three bedrooms, all with ceiling fans and two with built in wardrobes
- Main bathroom with separate toilet
- Internal laundry room with direct external access
- Undercover patio area
- Double carport
- Fully lined shed with kitchenette and bathroom
- Garden shed/ lawn locker
- Gazebo or secondary carport
- Fully fenced 911m² allotment with generous side access

For more information or to arrange a private inspection, please call Eli Winger or Xavier Laurie today.