Nestled at 19 Quinn Street Seaford, this property offers an opportunity for homeowners, investors and renovators alike. This well-loved property is currently tenanted by long term renter who maintain it as if it were their own. Baring marks from a lifetime of memories, this solid property is comfortably liveable but also presents the perfect canvas for anyone with a creative vision and passion for transformation. Boasting three bedrooms, this home provides space and comfort. Each of the rooms are nicely sized and two come complete with walk in robes while the other offers access via a porch to the rear yard. A light filled, spacious living area is adorned by its classic bay window creating a cozy space for family gatherings or a quiet night in. Polished floorboards feature throughout the home adding a sense of warmth. The kitchen provides bench space and electric cooking while the adjoining dining room allows for entertaining or formal dinners. A central bathroom and separate water closet services the family home while the full-size laundry provides storage and access to the rear yard. Sitting on approximately 597 square meters, there is plenty of room for pets and children to play. If you are a gardening enthusiast, then this blank canvas could come to life in whichever way you choose, be it veggie patches, ornamentals or a combination. With the ability to add an extension or develop the property (STCA) this package ensures opportunity well into the future. The location caters to diverse interest with ease of access to everyday amenities such as the Peninsula Link freeway, Frankston Freeway, Eastlink and Nepean Highway. Frankston's bustling bayside shopping centre is only a moment away as well as gyms, a golf course, plus an array of wonderful cafes and restaurants. The Kananook train station is a short walk across the footbridge and schools are easily accessible. If you would like more information, please contact us.
