Relax by the wood burning fire, alfresco under the magnificent Elm tree in the back yard or stroll down the canopy tree lined street to Central Reserve for some leisure activities. Walk to Kingsway for a meal and a movie or enjoy a shopping spree at the Glen. Discover serenity in this charming weatherboard home and its north facing relaxing garden oasis. Nestled in a prime location, this family home offers the perfect blend of timeless charm and modern comfort. Featuring high ceilings, a bright modern Euro-appointed kitchen, newly installed 5-star gas ducted heating and a continuous hot water system. Equipped with a split system air conditioner and ceiling fans to keep you cool in summer. Set high up on the 739sqms (approx.) block amid established gardens, the home presents its living space up front across an elegant lounge and open plan family room, offering bedrooms in their own separate wing with the convenience of 2 bathrooms. Classic neutral tones add to the calm mood throughout, with spa sanctuary pebble tiling in the family bathroom, polished hardwood floors underfoot, corniced ceilings, and lovely front and back porches. Uniquely detailed by ample attic storage with a pull-down ladder, a cubby house in the back corner for the kids to play in, and a freestanding garage and workshop at the top of the gated driveway. Superbly located in Glen Waverley's heartland, zoned for Brentwood Secondary College (STSA), in walking distance to The Glen, Kingsway restaurant strip, Glen Waverley train station and Central Reserve, with close connections via the M1 and Eastlink and access to multiple bus routes. Embrace a lifestyle of comfort and relaxation in a convenient sort after location.
