When convenience counts, few will go further than this character-filled weatherboard home that delivers total ease of living thanks to its handy location, tranquil garden setting and fantastic privacy. Set in a peaceful and pretty neighbourhood just a matter of steps from Ringwood Lake Reserve, this is a property that cleverly combines classic design with an indoor/outdoor format so often sought in 2024. You will feel immediately at home as you enter this inviting single level home. Enjoying leafy garden views at every turn, it delivers a comfortable living / dining room complemented by a casual meal zone and timber kitchen complete with vintage St George cooker. The main bedroom has its own ensuite that allows you to take a bath overlooking the gorgeous garden, while 2 additional bedrooms, spotless family bathroom and good-sized laundry round out the floor plan. Outdoors you'll find a paved BBQ area amid private cottage gardens, while other features include a garage / workshop, alarm system, ducted heating and air conditioning. Zoned to Ringwood Secondary College and only a short walk to Ringwood East shops, hospital precinct and train station, you will have Eastland and Eastlink little more than a kilometre away. Inspection is a must.
