Showcasing period features and plenty of charm

This cleverly renovated semi offers the perfect package for today's lifestyle with its attractive full brick exterior and great blend of classic features with modern charm. There are 2 good sized bedrooms, main with built-in wardrobe, a generous living room plus plenty of character throughout featuring high ornate ceilings, picture rails, fireplaces plus polished timber floors with off street parking. Combined dining area enhanced by a up dated gas kitchen overlooking a family friendly yard and fully renovated bathroom. It represents an excellent buying opportunity for those seeking to downsize or invest in their first home.

Add to this a quiet blue-ribbon address and it makes a great lifestyle property with all the area's amenities close by including Yeo Park with its sought-after Infant's School, Trinity Grammar private school, and popular Excelsior Jones cafe. There is an incredible variety of public transport options in walking distance including buses, trains and the new light rail. Only 15 minutes to CBD. Foodies and shoppers alike will appreciate the diverse attractions of Ashfield's famous dining precinct and neighbouring Summer Hill village.
