Perfectly positioned at the end of the most sought after Shawbrook Avenue, this attractive and solid custom-built home is sure to please. With a floor plan that really works, this lovely home is private from the world and features formal and informal living areas, a central kitchen and the most picturesque outlook. Polished timber floorboards flow throughout creating a lovely ambience whilst large windows gather the garden in. There are three generous bedrooms plus an office, the main bedroom offers an excellent walk-in robe and ensuite. The kitchen is the hub of the home, it presents loads of cupboards, ample bench space, a dishwasher and pantry, and is within close proximity to a peaceful sitting room overlooking the fabulous outlook. The storage throughout this home is rather impressive, providing ample linen cupboards, a cloak room and the laundry... WOW! The outdoor areas are very well designed, with surround verandas (positioned for the outlook), an inground swimming pool, BBQ area, a huge remote double garage and a magnificent shed/workshop, measuring (shed 3.8m x 9.2m and workshop 6m x 6m). If you are seeking a private residence, on a spacious 1206m², with a very special outlook, then look no further than here.
