Positioned at the end of a peaceful street behind a secure & private façade, this single-level three-bedroom home has been transformed into a captivating contemporary haven. Lovingly & stylishly updated by its current architect-owners, the refreshed interior is instantly inviting, lined with blond floorboards & finished in a bright, contemporary colour palette both indoors & out, framed by sleek ebony accents. Off the entrance, a study area provides a peaceful work-from-home retreat with an adjoining sitting room/potential guest bedroom dividable by double sliding doors. In the heart of the home, a spacious open-plan living & dining zone is perfectly complimented by a cleverly designed galley kitchen fitted with Caesarstone benchtops, two ovens, gas cooktop, integrated dishwasher & custom storage solutions. Off the living & dining, a covered decked alfresco designed for entertaining with access to the home's front garden & carport & overlooks a low-maintenance & lush rear garden space with utility shed. Three bedrooms with built-in robes (one with private ensuite) are serviced by a central family bathroom with shower-over-bath & separate laundry. Central heating & split-systems provide comfortable year-round living while a carport behind a coded automatic gate delivers urban convenience & total peace of mind. Set in this fantastic family-forward location, enjoy Glen Huntly Road shops, Koornang Road & Glen Huntly Park just around the corner plus easy access to Glen Huntly Primary School, Monash Uni & city-wide public transport.
