Hidden away in one of North Orange's most sought-after streets - adjacent to a nature reserve and overlooking bushland - 19 Stevenson Way is the perfect fusion of a modern house and a peaceful and tranquil address. The family home, built in 2019, is spacious and stylish, and houses four large bedrooms, including a lovely master with ensuite and walk-in wardrobe. The kitchen includes eye-catching oak cabinetry and is coupled with a walk-in pantry, with a discreet home office nook tucked into a private corner block that opens out onto the sun-drenched living-dining area. An additional living room towards the front of the house affords peace and quiet for the entire family, especially in the warmer months when the gorgeous alfresco entertaining area will also be in constant use. The block itself is fully landscaped and has been stocked with easy-to-maintain trees and gardens that will be an instant joy for the new owners.
