This charming three-bedroom house presents an incredible opportunity for those dreaming of a family friendly lifestyle in a highly sought after suburb. Built in 1966 and well-maintained over the years, the residence is nestled on an ample 609sqm (approx.) parcel of land in the delightful area of Novar Gardens. The house is ideally located minutes from the prestigious Immanuel College, vibrant Glenelg beach, bustling local shops, Adelaide Airport, and the CBD, offering an unbeatable blend of serene suburban atmosphere with easy access to urban amenities. The property's thoughtful layout ensures comfort and functionality throughout its spacious domains. Double French doors in the lounge/formal dining area provide a seamless flow to a private and secure backyard, perfect for outdoor relaxation and entertaining. Natural light illuminates a cheerful kitchen equipped with an electric stove and overlooks a cozy family meals area. Both the master bedroom and second bedroom come with the convenience of built-in robes. The bathroom is complemented by a separate shower room to accommodate the morning routines effortlessly - a bonus for a busy household. The three-car garage serves as an optimal space for vehicles or can be transformed into an ideal workshop, studio, teen retreat, or games room to suit various needs. Key features of the property include: - Three generously sized bedrooms - Built-in robes in the master and second bedrooms providing ample storage - A single well-appointed bathroom with a totally separate shower room - Light-filled kitchen with electric stove and adjacent family meals area - Air conditioning, ducted cooling, and heating ensuring climate control year-round - A three-car garage with versatility - Additional tool shed for extra storage - Prime location close to schools, shops, and transport facilities The marriage of convenience, character, and comfortable living makes this house an attractive asset. Its propensity to blend into any lifestyle, thanks to its prime location and well-considered facilities, is undeniably appealing for families, professionals, and investors alike. A viewing is recommended to truly appreciate what this delightful home in Novar Gardens has to offer.
