First time offered for sale in more than 50 years, this beachside home has all the makings for a fantastic renovator. Ideally located a few hundred meters from the North Pottsville Beach and a leisurely stroll into the village or the estuary, it truly has the makings for a great family home. Behind the brick facade and original décor, there's a fantastic family home just begging for some attention. This home could be that project you've been looking for. Features include:- Home built in the 70's - one owner- Four reasonable sized bedrooms- Separate lounge and dining area- Single garage- Large secure back yard for the kids to play- 300m to the beach and estuary- 600m to the village If you are looking to get into the market at the lower end, you know these opportunities don't come along very often. I'm absolutely positive this home will sell in the first couple of weeks of being on the market so get in quick. Make an enquiry to receive the complete information package for the property.
