Plenty of room for another house, but always 'subject to council approval' This charming cottage boasts a prime location within walking distance of local shops and a primary school, making it an ideal choice for families. Nestled on a spacious 981m² allotment, it offers ample space for outdoor activities and gardening. With convenient side access to a sizable backyard, there's plenty of room for expansion or outdoor entertainment areas. While the house may require some renovation and TLC, its inherent potential shines through, offering the opportunity to transform it into a cozy and inviting home. Whether you're looking to add your own personal touches or undertake a complete renovation, this property provides a blank canvas for your creativity and vision. Overall, this cottage presents an exciting opportunity for buyers seeking a well-positioned home with plenty of potential to create their dream living space.
