Fabulous single storey home, immaculately presented and offers a lovely indoor / outdoor flow via the large windows and sliding doors to the terrace and rear yard. A thoughtfully designed layout making the most of the established Highlands garden and ensuring an ease of living in a highly sought after enclave. High points Formal lounge / dining separate to the family room which offers space for casual dining and accesses the galley kitchen. Galley kitchen offers gas cooktop / electric oven, dishwasher, exceptional bench space and overlooks the BBQ terrace with direct access to the laundry and double garage ensuring easy access to the indoors in the winter / wet months. Master suite is generous in size, separate to the family wing and showcases a large bay window capturing sunshine and a gorgeous garden vista plus there is an ensuite and walk-in robe. Family wing houses 2 double bedrooms, one with built-in robe, main bathroom in exceptional condition plus a 3rd bed or potential home office / studio / playroom with sliding doors to back garden. Externally the rear yard is fully fenced and park like with open lawn areas and lovely established trees and garden beds, a fabulous space for the kids or grand kids. The front yard ensures privacy to the street with plenty of off street parking via the long driveway. A fabulous home in a five star location offering a relatively level walk to the village shops and station. A great property for downsizers, young families, weekend escapes and investors.
