Federation perfection in Marrickville's heart

Thoroughly renovated and boasting a sunny rear-to-north aspect, this double-brick Federation masterpiece represents the best of inner-west living.

Be welcomed by the storybook facade into a character-rich entry hall, and discover a spacious lounge, plus open-plan living area.

Four large bedrooms, a family-friendly yard and preserved period details add to the home's irresistible charm.

This freestanding delight is surrounded by similar homes in a quiet residential street, just 600 metres from Marrickville Station and footsteps to restaurants and small bars along Illawarra Road.

- Freestanding Federation brick home on 452sqm
- Northerly aspect with lawn, covered deck
- Freshly renovated bathroom and kitchen honouring the home's provenance
- Four bedrooms with built-ins, two with original fireplaces
- High ornate ceilings, polished floorboards, stained glass windows and picture rails
- Quiet position: a short stroll to trains, dining and amenities; under 10km to CBD
