Nestled on a breathtaking 10-acre parcel of land, this property offers a rare opportunity to experience the epitome of rural living with many accommodation options for all the family. With three dwellings, solar panels, town water, picturesque views of the surrounding mountains and access to the Nicholson River, this property will tick many boxes. The main house is a delightful retreat that features three bedrooms and two bathrooms, providing ample space for comfortable living. Each morning begins with a serene sunrise and each evening ends with a spectacular sunset, it does offer a peaceful and private sanctuary. Adjacent to the main house, a fully self-contained bungalow awaits, providing a versatile space for accommodating extended family members, guests or even generating extra income as an Airbnb Rental. With its own private entrance, separate kitchenette, bathroom and bedroom plus your own private deck, this bungalow is the epitome of convenience and autonomy. Another option is the relocatable dwelling which is also fully equipped and a very comfortable option of accommodation. Whether you're looking for acreage for your horses or a few sheep or cows this property offers options. Added bonus of access to the Nicholson River provides the perfect place to immerse yourself in the tranquility of the river, float down the river in your kayak or throw the fishing line in and enjoy your surroundings. For those with a green thumb or a love for fresh produce, an established orchard graces the property. This versatile property opens doors to a plethora of possibilities.
