A majestic two-bedroom residence, this luxurious sub penthouse. The proportions are spectacular. The views are equally stunning. Huge north facing living, dining and breakfast areas and a large study space are complemented by terrace entertaining with the city, St Kilda Road, King's Domain and the MCG. A memorable backdrop open plan kitchen featuring Miele appliances, integrated fridge and freezer included stone surfaces and island bench. Both bedrooms, including a main bedroom with walk in robes and ensuite, enjoy access to a superb second terrace. A central bathroom completes superb proportions offering absolute privacy. One of only three on its floor, embedded power network, ducted heating and cooling throughout, integrated speaker system and TV cabinet included. The apartment is enhanced by all the facilities for which THE MELBURNIAN is renowned including concierge, business centre, pool, gym, residents garden and secure side by side parking with storage.
