

1907/111 Castlereagh, Sydney, NSW 2000

Sold Apartment

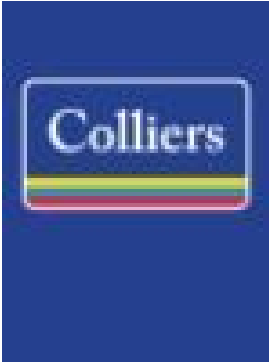

Friday, 29 March 2024

1907/111 Castlereagh, Sydney, NSW 2000

Bedrooms: 1

Bathrooms: 1

Type: Apartment

111 Castlereagh

Contact agent

Cbus Property's 111 Castlereagh heralds the historic transformation of one of Sydney's most treasured heritage buildings. Uniquely placed above the former David Jones department store, this collection of 98 limited edition residences is intimately positioned at the heart of Sydney. Residence 1907 is an efficiently designed one bedroom apartment, perfect for young professionals, or frequent business or leisure travellers seeking a pied-à-terre in the Sydney CBD. Residence 1907 features:- An L-shaped kitchen featuring marbled black granite natural stone benchtop- Integrated Gaggenau cooktop, oven, microwave and dishwasher, and Sub-Zero fridge/freezer- Bronze Astra Walker custom tapware and accessories in the kitchen, laundry, and bathrooms- Concealed built-in laundry with Miele washer and dryer- Direct access to the balcony from the living area and master bedroom- Durable engineered oak timber flooring in herringbone pattern- The bedroom features built in robes and 100% wool loop pile carpet Overlooking the beauty of Hyde Park, residents will have exclusive use of the city's most private wellness space, complete with a heated open-air pool, fitness studio and yoga deck. A graceful resident's lounge and adjoining dining room with kitchenette opens onto a leafy wrap-around terrace, perfect for private celebrations. 111 Castlereagh is designed by renowned architectural firm FJC Studio (formerly FJMT). The building itself is a feat of extraordinary engineering, seemingly suspended over, yet embedded into, the historic foundation of the former David Jones department store below. The interiors are exclusively crafted with custom-designed details and curated accessories befitting this new iconic Sydney landmark. Construction is underway. Enquire now for more information, or book a private appointment to visit our display gallery at 25 Martin Place. By Appointment Only. Closed on Public Holidays.