Nestled in the quiet beauty of Rocky Cape, this 2-bed, 1-bath home sits on just under 2 acres, offering a blend of simplicity and functionality. The practical side includes a double garage, an open workshop, and a man cave for your projects. While the house may appear a classic, everything functions efficiently, including a substantial water tank for sustainability. With a gentle permanent creek in the backyard providing a soothing backdrop, the property becomes a peaceful retreat. An ample wood shelter is perfect for outdoor gatherings, and when the chill sets in, the wood heater adds a cozy touch. Embrace sustainable living with solar panels, and stay comfortable year-round with a reverse cycle air conditioner. Whether you're looking for a tranquil escape or a practical canvas for your endeavors, this Rocky Cape property strikes a balance between natural charm and functional amenities. It's a slice of serene paradise waiting for you to make it your own."
