Nestled in Woollahra's coveted enclave, this magnificent freestanding villa exudes an extraordinary sense of tranquility and privacy. Sheltered by meticulously crafted Will Dangar-designed gardens, this manor-like residence boasts grandiose proportions, exquisitely crafted interiors, and bespoke features that embody classic elegance. Surrounded by lush greenery, this home provides a serene countryside ambiance rarely found in the heart of the village. Situated at the quiet end of the street, just 200 metres from the bustling high street, this two-story residence is enveloped by landscaped courtyards and boasts an ideal north-facing rear aspect. Additionally, it offers convenient internal access to a basement level featuring a five-car garage with a showroom-style design. Sophistication flows seamlessly throughout the property, with formal and casual living spaces that extend gracefully to the outdoors. This residence is a perfect entertainer, with mirrors strategically placed to bounce natural light throughout the interiors, and outdoor lighting that creates a magical atmosphere after dark. Every aspect of this home reflects absolute quality, from the Italian marble kitchen to the opulent master suite. The custom-fitted library and self-contained apartment, perfect for guests or an au pair, further enhance the property's allure. Experience the quintessential Woollahra lifestyle, with artisan cafes, French bistros, delis, and designer boutiques just steps away. Woollahra Public School is conveniently around the corner, and a leisurely 450-metre stroll will lead you to the expansive green spaces of Centennial Park.
