Nestled in serene and picturesque West Main Arm, this charming rural retreat offers an incredible opportunity to embrace a peaceful and idyllic lifestyle surrounded by nature. Situated near the end of Coopers Lane, this well-kept two-bedroom home sits on a generous 18 acres offering the potential to extend, subject to Council regulations. A rocky escarpment provides a dramatic backdrop, while the location offers privacy and tranquillity as the property is tucked well away from the road. Step inside, and you'll find a warm and inviting home with a generous open-plan layout and large windows that allow natural light to flood through. Sliding doors open onto a large, entertaining veranda - ideal for enjoying your first coffee of the day - or hosting get-togethers with friends and family. The views from the deck are simply breathtaking, with panoramic vistas taking in expansive valley views that reach out towards the Pacific Ocean. Conveniently located in West Main Arm, this property combines the tranquillity of rural living with easy access to the cafes, restaurants, and boutique shops that Mullumbimby and Brunswick Heads have to offer. A peaceful oasis, and the perfect getaway property, this is the ideal place to unwind, connect with nature and embrace the joy of a slower lifestyle.
