A statement in contemporary form, this bold custom-designed home showcases a magnetic warmth through dream-like ambience and signature elegance. Drawing inspiration from the immediate Mirador ocean view landscape inviting effortless and opulent living. A designer-driven sense of detailing highlights the intention to capture a framed series of spaces, illustrating a deep connection to the central desires of modern living. The near new residence showcases large scale proportions behind the visually striking Eden timbers facade. Extending out across a single level, a combination of four bedrooms, two bathrooms, a free-flowing entertaining domain encompassing living, dining and a well-appointed designer kitchen with a butler's pantry and superior quality appliances, all seamlessly united with the external ocean views. Enjoy the calm sense of fresh coastal air within a prestigious locale, nestled close to an array of neighbouring parks and reserves, the Tura Beach sparkling coastline, the Tura Beach Shopping Village and public transport opportunities. With fully completed landscaping, underneath the home's open entertaining area and a spectacular open firepit space, all there is to do is simply move in and enjoy!
