

199 Palmwoods Road, Main Arm, NSW 2482

Sold House

Wednesday, 17 April 2024

199 Palmwoods Road, Main Arm, NSW 2482

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Area: 1784 m2

Type: House

Idan Gonen

0266842615

Contact agent

Discover this captivating forest retreat nestled in Palmwoods Village, showcasing a unique dwelling set on a lush, easy-care 1784sqm plot. Situated a mere 12 minutes from Mullumbimby and a 40 minutes' drive to Byron Bay's buzzing restaurants, this gem offers breathtaking mountain and cliff face panoramas. Revel in a radiant, sun-kissed north-facing aspect down the valley, as gentle breezes whisk your cares away. The main residence exudes rustic charm, flaunting 4 spacious bedrooms (or 5 if you convert the office), complemented by 2 bathrooms. Timber touches enhance its character and both floors offer picturesque valley views. Enjoy modern comforts in the well-appointed kitchen, bathrooms and laundry. Greet each day with amazing sunrises to the east. It also features a separate, well-appointed art studio that would be perfect for a kid's retreat. An expansive deck overlooks the valley, promising endless inspiration and a tranquil backdrop for relaxation. Equipped with a 3.3 kw solar power system and a backup water supply with on-site 3000L rainwater tank and attached pump, this property champions sustainability. Cultivate your greens in abundant garden beds, interconnected by pathways and enjoy a dependable water supply from a shared community natural spring. Relish in the refreshing waterfalls and swimming holes nearby and take in the songs of the native birds right in your own backyard! Secure your piece of paradise today.