$690,000 to $740,000

This two-bedroom home is solid, spacious, and perfectly located. It is just a short walk from bustling Pakington Street, the Geelong waterfront, and the train station. A cosy separate lounge leads to the open-plan living area is very roomy and leads out to a private rear entertainers deck and rear yard. The kitchen comes with ample bench space and storage, while the two bedrooms share a central bathroom. The car accommodation is generous, with a lock-up garage via rear access. This attractive low-maintenance, private, and secure property, perfect for downsizers, couples, and investors. All information offered by Whitford is provided in good faith.
